M-m-m, already we can smell those turkeys cooking! Just one more day and you'll be stuffing yourself with a luscious dinner. (We hope). We'd like to wish everyone a very happy day.

Just to breeze around for a minute, let's see what a few are doing for Thanksgiving... Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Maya and family of Los Angeles are entertaining Andres and Charlene Alarcon and kiddies of Schilling drive for dinner... A UCLA student, Conrad Pistol, and a senior at that, will be a guest for dinner at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. H. Blackman, Mr. Blackman and daughter Joan, of 22944 Cabrillo avenue... The James Morehead residence will be the scene of a lovely Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. Kozakiewicz and their three sons from Lomita will, indeed, have a most enjoyable day... The Gene Beavers will motor to Taft over the weekend for a belated Thanksgiving dinner, but nevertheless will be celebrated with much gusto... Floyd and Betty Wentz are going to do some turkey carving to come Thursday. Betty's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Loy (ask Betty about her father—it's really interesting) and her two sisters, Beverly and Nancy, are going to join the Wentz family for Thanksgiving dinner.

The holiday season will be doubly merry for the Jack Phillips of Reynosa drive. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Todd motored clear from Oswego, New York, to spend the holidays with daughter Lois and family, and to enjoy our beautiful California sunshine. Happy holidays, folks.

Congratulations are flying over on Calamar street. A fine baby boy, Kenneth Wayne, arrived at the Torrance Memorial Hospital November 13th and chose Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Newland for his proud parents. Kenneth weighed 8 pounds and is Wayne's and Nadine's first child. What a wonderful Thanksgiving present!

We hear that the Tylers of Marinette street are vacationing "somewhere" for "we don't know how long." Hope they have a nice trip though and will give us the particulars when they return home.

The Palos Verdes Country Club was the setting for the Columbia Steel Management dinner dance Saturday night. The Richerson's, Merle and Ethel of Cabrillo avenue, and the Way's, Jimmy and Madeline of Reynosa drive were among the many who enjoyed the gala affair. Incidentally, Jimmy Way is personally manager at Columbia.

NEVER phone someone when a sewing bee is in progress? Well, it happened to me when I phoned Mrs. John Bickham of Middlebrook road quite by accident and I'll tell you for sure, they were certainly having a lot of fun. The sewing gals were Mesdames Nita Sampson, Lorraine Page, Jewel Johnson, Myrtle Mix, Eva Ross, Peggy Roxy, Julie Batty, Lois Leonard and Josie Jarvis. They enjoyed a buffet dinner with roast chicken and all the trimmings... (see, I did put it in) on Wednesday November 14. By the way, their name for the group is "Lazy Daisy Sewing Club."

Mrs. J. C. Barton of 1727 Schilling drive is home now from the hospital following her confinement there. We certainly wish her a speedy recovery.

Another reminder of the Methodist Church bazaar on December 6 (Thursday). Doors open at 10 a.m. Lunch counter will sell donuts, sandwiches and coffee throughout the day. Circle 7 will have its own booth—see their many handmade articles and homemade candy... Dinner starts at 5 p.m. and get your tickets from Mrs. Morehead, Lomita 2566-M.

be given by Rev. Arthur E. Bello. A Holy Communion service will be held Thanksgiving day at 10 a.m. STOCK WOOD
